Dear Ronnie:

I have today written your elders a letter. I do hope that we can prevail upon them to support you to the extent of $300 per month. If there is any thing else I can; please let me know.

I look forward to a very successful ministry with you and Ron Crawford. I hope that both of you are praying daily that God will bless our efforts in Atlanta. I had a beautiful meeting with the Decatur elders last Saturday evening and preached for the Decatur congregation Sunday morning. These are godly men who know what it is to pray and to serve. I think you will be spiritually enriched simply by having associated with and working under the direction of these five capable men who are excited and thrilled that you are going to be with us in Atlanta.

Faternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

FROM THE DESK OF
RONNIE DUGGER

Dear John Allen -

I met with our elders the other night and filled them in on our plans to move to Atlanta.

We would appreciate it if you would "fire" a letter to our elders in our behalf and let them know we will be working in campus evangelism with you in addition to going to school.

I'm still hoping that they will come through with the $300 - will appreciate anything you can do!

In Christian love,
Ronnie
